

Barnwell Specific Learning Difficulties Base

Training course

Improving Extended Writing

This course is aimed at teachers and teaching assistants (those that teach withdrawal or small groups) whose specialist subject is not English at KS3 or 4. The aim is to explore why students experience difficulties in extended writing and how these impact learning. Two strategies to improve extended writing will be explored; modelling using the 'sequence for teaching writing' and the use of writing frames. These strategies, in our experience, have proved to be powerful in helping students, improve their writing across the curriculum.
