

- Choose a starting number and a target number
- Find the number which, when multiplied by the starting number equals the target number.
- Use these numbers to start and then choose some of your own

Starting number

15

4

24

19

Target number

255

14

300

226.1

Starting number \times = Target number

Keys allowed:

\times

=

- What if the target number is smaller than the starting number?

